

GAGLIOLE CHIANTI CLASSICO GALLULE RISERVA 2015

This smells so much like truffles it's uncanny. Then enticingly fresh red fruit springs from the glass in a myriad of different shades. Red plums, crushed roses, dried cranberries and hibiscus. The palate is so unbelievably polished that it's quite startling. Fine, firm tannins and umami flavors lurk through layers of glimmering fruit and carry right through to the long, polished finish. Drink now or hold.
